

EXHIBIT G

6cemarqptp

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

06 Cr. 1138

JAMES MARQUEZ,

Defendant.

Plea

White Plains, N.Y.
December 14, 2006

Before:

THE HONORABLE GEORGE A. YANTHIS,

Magistrate Judge

MICROFILM

JAN 16 2007

USDCSD NY WP

APPEARANCES

MICHAEL J. GARCIA

United States Attorney for the
Southern District of New York

MARGERY FEINZIG

Assistant United States Attorney

STANLEY TWARDY, JR.

Attorney for Defendant

*Proceedings recorded by electronic recording device.

6cemarqptp

1 THE DEPUTY CLERK: United States of America against
2 James Marquez.

3 Is the government ready?

4 MS. FEINZIG: The government is ready, Judge. Good
5 morning, your Honor. Margery Feinzig for the government.

6 THE COURT: Good morning.

7 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Is the defendant ready?

8 MR. TWARDY: Yes. Good morning, your Honor. Stanley
9 Twardy, Jr. for the defendant. With me is James Marquez, the 10 defendant.

11 THE COURT: Good morning.

12 We're here for the waiver of indictment, the filing of 13 an information, and the entry of a plea.

14 Ms. Hilbert, please swear the defendant.

15 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Certainly, Judge.

16 Please rise and raise your right hand.

17 (Defendant James Marquez sworn)

18 THE COURT: Mr. Marquez, you are now under oath. You
19 are sworn to tell the truth. If you knowingly made a false
20 statement, you could be charged with perjury or making a false
21 statement. Do you understand that?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: For the record, what is your name?

24 THE DEFENDANT: James G. Marquez.

25 THE COURT: How old are you?

6cemarqptp

1 THE DEFENDANT: Fifty-eight, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: How far did you go in school?

3 THE DEFENDANT: I have a Master's in business
4 administration.

5 THE COURT: Do you read, write, speak and understand
6 the English language?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Are you currently under the influence of 9 any drugs, alcohol, medicine or pills?

10 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Do you suffer from any physical or mental 12 problem which prevents you from understanding the proceedings?

13 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: You do have the absolute right to be 15 represented by an attorney at this and every stage of the 16 proceedings against you. If you could not afford an attorney,
17 the Court would appoint you one. And the right to an attorney
18 goes to every stage of the criminal proceeding, including trial
19 and appeal. Do you understand that?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Are you satisfied with the services that 22 your attorney, Mr. Twardy, has provided to you so far in this 23 case?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: There is a waiver of indictment form?

6cemarqptp

1 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Yes, Judge.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Hilbert, please verify the signature
3 of the defendant.

4 THE DEPUTY CLERK: You are James G. Marquez?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

6 THE DEPUTY CLERK: And that is your original
7 signature, signed today, December 14th, 2006?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, it is.

9 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Before signing this waiver, had 10 your attorney explained it to you?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE DEPUTY CLERK: And have you signed this
13 voluntarily?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Do you understand you are under no
16 obligation to waive indictment?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

18 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Do you also understand if you don't
19 waive indictment and if the government wants to prosecute you,
20 they would have to present your case to a grand jury, which may 21 or may not indict you?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

23 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Do you understand what a grand jury
24 is?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

6cemargptp

1 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Have you seen a copy of this felony
2 information?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Marquez, unless you waive indictment,
5 you could not be charged with a felony unless a grand jury
6 finds probable cause that a crime has been committed and that
7 you committed it. Do you understand that?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: A grand jury is composed of at least 16
10 and not more than 23 persons. At least 12 grand jurors must 11 find probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed
12 before you could be indicted. Do you understand that?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: If you waive indictment, this case will
15 proceed on the charges in the United States Attorney's
16 information just as though you had been indicted. Do you
17 understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Now, have you had enough time to discuss 20 waiving your right to indictment by the grand jury with your
21 attorney?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Have any threats or promises been made to 24 induce you to waive indictment?

25 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

6cemarqptp

1 THE COURT: And do you wish to waive your right to
2 indictment by the grand jury?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: The Court finds that the defendant has
5 knowingly and voluntarily waived his right to indictment by the 6 grand jury. The information will be accepted for filing.

7 The Court will enter a not guilty plea at this time
8 and direct the clerk to draw out the name of the assigned
9 district court judge.

10 THE DEPUTY CLERK: This is a Wheel A matter.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 (Pause)

13 THE COURT: The case has been assigned to Judge
14 Brieant.

15 I do advise you, Mr. Marquez, that you have the 16 absolute right to have this guilty plea proceeding conducted
17 before Judge Brieant, who is the district court judge that will 18 be imposing sentence in your case. Do you understand that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: However, if you consent and agree, I will
21 conduct the guilty plea proceeding here today. I will then
22 report and recommend to Judge Brieant as to whether or not your 23 guilty plea should be accepted. I will make that 24 recommendation based on everything that is brought out during 25 the proceeding here today.

6cemarqptp

1 It is important for you to understand that the Court
2 need not accept your plea of guilty unless it's satisfied that
3 you are guilty and that you understand all your rights. Do you
4 understand that?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Is it your wish that I conduct the guilty
7 plea proceeding here today? Do you want me to do it?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 There is a consent form?

11 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Yes, there is.

12 THE COURT: Please verify the signature of the 13 defendant.

14 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Once again, Mr. Marquez, that is 15 your original signature, signed today, December 14th, 2006?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, it is.

17 THE COURT: Did anyone threaten you or coerce you or 18 promise you anything to get you to consent to proceed before me
19 here today?

20 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: And did you sign this consent form freely
22 and voluntarily?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: The Court finds that the defendant has 25 knowingly and voluntarily consented to proceed before a United

6cemarqptp

1 States Magistrate Judge on this felony plea allocution.

2 There is a plea agreement.

3 Ms. Hilbert, please verify the signature of the 4 defendant on the last page.

5 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Certainly.

6 Finally, Mr. Marquez, that is your original signature,
7 signed today, December 14th, 2006?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, it is.

9 THE COURT: The plea agreement will be marked as Court
10 Exhibit number 1. It will remain in the custody of the United 11 States Attorney.

12 Now, Mr. Marquez, have you read this plea agreement?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Have you discussed it with your attorney?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Do you understand everything that is set
17 forth in the plea agreement?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Did you read the plea agreement before you
20 signed it?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Does the plea agreement contain the entire
23 understanding between you and the government in connection with 24 your case?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

6cemarqptp

1 THE COURT: Did you sign the plea agreement freely and
2 voluntarily?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Did anyone force you or coerce you or 5 threaten you or promise you anything to get you to sign the 6 plea agreement other than what is set forth in the plea
7 agreement?

8 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Do you understand the charges that are 10 pending against you?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Have you discussed those charges with your
13 attorney?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Do you understand that anything which is 16 not disclosed to me during this proceeding or which is not set
17 forth in the plea agreement will not be binding on the outcome
18 of your case? Everything must be disclosed. Do you understand
19 that?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 Ms. Feinzig, could you advise the defendant of the 23 maximum possible penalties that he faces.

24 MS. FEINZIG: Yes, your Honor.

25 The maximum sentence is five years' imprisonment;

6cemarqptp

1 $250,000 or twice the gross pecuniary gain or loss from the
2 offense; three years of supervised release; a mandatory $100
3 special assessment; restitution of $6,256,650; and forfeiture.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 Mr. Marquez, did you hear what the Assistant U.S.
6 Attorney just said?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Do you understand that those are the 9 maximum possible penalties that you face on your plea of 10 guilty?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you are 13 sentenced to a term of imprisonment, even if it was the maximum
14 term, and to a term of supervised release, and if you violate
15 the terms of supervised release, you could be sentenced to an 16 additional term of imprisonment for violating conditions of 17 supervised release? Do you understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Do you understand that if that were to 20 occur, you would not receive credit against the additional 21 sentence for the jail time you had already served nor for the 22 time you had served on supervised release? Do you understand?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: You are pleading guilty to a felony
25 offense. Such adjudication may deprive you of valuable civil

6cemarqptp

1 rights, such as the right to vote, the right to hold public
2 office, the right to serve on a jury, the right to possess any
3 type of firearm, the right to possess certain professional
4 licenses. And those are just examples. Do you understand
5 that?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Are you a United States citizen?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Do you understand that what I've gone over
10 are the possible consequences of a plea of guilty? These are 11 the things that could happen to you.

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Now, have you and your attorney talked
14 about how the sentencing guidelines may apply to your case?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Do you understand that the sentencing
17 guidelines are not mandatory, but they must be considered by 18 the district court judge when imposing sentence in your case?
19 Do you understand that?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Do you understand that the Court will not 22 be able to determine the guideline range for your case until 23 after a presentence report has been completed?

24 You and the government would have an opportunity to 25 review that report. You could challenge any facts in that

6cemarqptp

1 report. And you could challenge the report's computation of 2 your sentencing guideline range. Do you understand that?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Do you understand that, under certain
5 circumstances, both you and the government have the right to 6 appeal any sentence that the Court would impose, subject to the 7 terms of the plea agreement? Do you understand that?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And Ms. Feinzig, are there any appeal
10 waiver provisions in the plea agreement?

11 MS. FEINZIG: Yes, your Honor. Under the plea
12 agreement, the defendant will waive his right to appeal a
13 sentence within the stipulated guidelines range, which will
14 either be 51 to 60 months' imprisonment or 41 to 51 months'
15 imprisonment.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 And Mr. Marquez, do you understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Do you understand that parole has been
20 abolished? If you are sentenced to a term of imprisonment, you
21 will not be eligible for an early release on parole. Do you
22 understand that?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you disagree
25 with the sentencing guideline determination made by the Court,

6cemarqptp

1 the range that the Court comes up with, that will not
2 constitute a basis for you to withdraw your plea of guilty? Do
3 you understand that?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Do you understand that you do not have to 6 plead guilty in this matter? You have the absolute right to 7 have this matter tried. If you chose to plead not guilty,
8 you're entitled to a speedy and public trial. And your case
9 could be decided by a jury. Do you understand that?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Also, if both you and the government
12 agreed, your case could be decided by a judge alone, without a
13 jury. Do you understand that?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: If there was a trial, the presumption of 16 innocence would remain in your favor throughout the entire 17 trial. The government would have the burden at any trial of 18 proving your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt as to each and 19 every element of the crime charged. And if tried by a jury,
20 the government would have to prove your case to the unanimous
21 satisfaction of each and every member of the jury before you
22 could be found guilty. Do you understand that?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: If there was trial, you would have the 25 right, with the assistance of your attorney, to cross-examine

6cemarqptp

1 and confront the witnesses against you, you would have the
2 right to call witnesses to testify on your behalf, and you
3 would have the right to have subpoenas issued to compel
4 witnesses to give testimony on your behalf.

5 You would also have the right at any trial to testify
6 on your own behalf, but only if you wished. You could not be
7 compelled to testify. And if you chose not to testify, no
8 unfavorable inference would be drawn against you because of 9 that. Do you understand?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: If there was a trial, you would be 12 entitled to the assistance of your attorney and to have an 13 attorney assigned to represent you without cost if you could
14 not afford an attorney. Do you understand?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Do you understand, Mr. Marquez, that, by 17 pleading guilty to the charges here today, you are giving up
18 your right to a trial? There would not be a trial in this 19 matter.

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Ms. Feinzig, what are the elements of the 22 offense, and what would the government be prepared to prove if 23 this matter did proceed to trial?

24 MS. FEINZIG: Your Honor, the elements of the 25 conspiracy charge are as follows:

6cemarqptp

1 First, that two or more persons entered into the
2 unlawful agreement charged in the information; second, that the 3 defendant knowingly and willfully became a member of the 4 conspiracy; third, that one of the members of the conspiracy
5 knowingly committed at least one of the overt acts charged in 6 the information; and, fourth, that the overt acts which are 7 found to have been committed were committed to further some
8 objective of the conspiracy.

9 In order to establish these elements of this crime,
10 the government would prove at trial, based on documentary
11 evidence and the testimony of witnesses, that from in or about 12 July 1996 to on or about October 10th, 2001, James Marquez and 13 his co-conspirators, Samuel Israel and Daniel Marino,
14 perpetrated a fraud on investors and potential investors in two 15 hedge funds, the Bayou Fund, LLC and Bayou Fund Ltd., by 16 misrepresenting the value of the hedge funds' assets and 17 causing these misrepresentations to be disseminated to current
18 and prospective investors in the Southern District of New York
19 and elsewhere. These false and misleading statements and 20 misrepresentations induced new investors to invest in the funds
21 and lulled existing investors into retaining their investments
22 in the funds.

23 The evidence would establish that Mr. Marquez, who 24 founded the original two hedge funds with Samuel Israel, was 25 responsible for executing trades, investment management and

6cemarqgtp

1 operations of funds. He and his co-conspirators caused to be
2 mailed quarterly reports to investors that contained fictitious
3 rates of return on trading in the funds and annual financial
4 statements that contained fictitious rates of return on trading
5 and inflated net asset value. The evidence would establish
6 that Mr. Marquez and Mr. Israel made up numbers. All of these
7 communications to investors made it appear that Bayou was 8 earning profits on trading when, in fact, it was not.

9 In furtherance of this scheme, and because Bayou could 10 not use an actual certified public accounting firm to audit the 11 funds and certify the funds' annual financial statements, in or 12 about 1998, Mr. Marquez, Mr. Israel and Mr. Marino devised a
13 plan to form a phony accounting firm. Thereafter, Mr. Marino
14 created Richmond-Fairfield Associates, a fake accounting firm,
15 and year after year, between 1999 and 2001, the co-conspirator
16 had Bayou's false financial statements sent out with a
17 fictitious certification by Richmond-Fairfield Associates that 18 the funds had been audited and the financial statements were 19 accurate.

20 As a result of these false statements, investors
21 invested more than $10 million during the time period.

22 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Marquez, did you hear what
23 the Assistant U.S. Attorney just said?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Do you agree with that?

6cemarqptp

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Have you clearly and fully understood
3 everything that has happened here today so far?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Do you have any questions of your attorney
6 or the Court before I continue?

7 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to have the Clerk of 9 the Court read paragraph 6 of the information and the overt
10 acts, and I will then take your plea.

11 THE DEPUTY CLERK: From in or about July 1996 to on or 12 about October 10th, 2001, in the Southern District of New York
13 and elsewhere, James G. Marquez, the defendant, Samuel Israel,
14 III and Daniel E. Marino unlawfully, willfully and knowingly
15 did combine, conspire, confederate and agree together and with 16 each other to commit offenses against the United States, to 17 wit, investment advisor fraud, in violation of Title 15, United 18 States Code, Sections 80b-6 and 80b-17 and, (b), mail fraud, in 19 violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1341.

20 It was a part and object of the conspiracy that James
21 G. Marquez, the defendant, along with --

22 THE COURT: You can go back, right to the overt acts.

23 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Oh, I'm sorry, Judge.

24 THE COURT: Yes, on paragraph 9.

25 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Paragraph 9?

6cemarqptp

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 THE DEPUTY CLERK: In furtherance of said conspiracy
3 and to effect the illegal objects thereof, the following overt
4 acts, among others, were committed in the Southern District of 5 New York and elsewhere:

6 A. At various times from in or about July 1996
7 through on or about October 10th, 2001, Marquez and Israel
8 traded securities on behalf of Bayou through computers located
9 in Westchester County, New York and at Bayou's office in 10 Stamford, Connecticut.

11 B. At various times between July 1996 and October
12 10th, 2001, Marquez, Israel and Marino had quarterly and/or 13 monthly reports and annual financial statements mailed to 14 investors located in the Southern District of New York and 15 elsewhere.

16 c. In or about 1999, Marquez, Israel and Marino
17 devised a plan in which Marino formed a sham certified public
18 accounting firm named Richmond-Fairfield Associates and 19 maintained an office for Richmond-Fairfield Associates in 20 Manhattan.

21 D. During the relevant time period, in annual
22 financial statements, Marquez, Israel and Marino had Bayou
23 falsely assert that Richmond-Fairfield Associates was an 24 independent auditor that had audited Bayou and certified its 25 financial statements.

6cemarqptp

1 In violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section
2 371.

3 THE COURT: To that charge, how do you plead, guilty
4 or not guilty?

5 THE DEFENDANT: I plead guilty, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right, now, as concerns the forfeiture
7 allegations, I'm not going to have them read; however, you
8 agree to the forfeiture allegations that are set forth in the 9 information? You agree to that?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 Now, has anyone made any promises to you, other than 13 what is set forth in the plea agreement, in order to induce you
14 to plead guilty?

15 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Has anyone threatened you or coerced you
17 to get you to plead guilty?

18 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Has anyone put any pressure on you or did
20 anything improper to you to get you to plead guilty?

21 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Has anyone made any specific promises to 23 you about what your sentence will be in this matter?

24 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Marquez, in your own words,

6cemarqptp

1 you are now going to have to tell me what you did in connection
2 with this charge that you're pleading guilty to.

3 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, during the period of time
4 alleged in the information, I acted in the position of a
5 portfolio manager for Bayou Fund where I helped formulate the 6 trading strategy for the fund. I had general knowledge of the 7 financial status of the fund and became aware, after a period
8 of time, that the fund was sustaining losses.

9 Together with others, I caused documents to be sent
10 via U.S. Mail to investors that contained inaccurate financial
11 information about the Bayou Fund. Specifically, such mailings
12 contained false financial information that made it appear that 13 the fund was more successful than it actually was.

14 I was also aware that Richmond-Fairfield was formed to 15 handle the audits for the Fund with the intent that the true
16 financial status of the Fund not be disclosed to investors.

17 I am deeply and genuinely sorry for my own actions and 18 for my failure to stop others from acting. I know that I have
19 caused a calculable hardship to Bayou investors and irreparable
20 sorrow and harm to my own family. And I apologize with all my 21 heart to those I have hurt.

22 THE COURT: All right. Are you pleading guilty to
23 this charge because you're, in fact, guilty of the crime
24 charged?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

6cemarqptp

1 THE COURT: Now, the acts that you just mentioned and
2 the ones that are set forth in the charges in the information,
3 did you do those acts knowingly and willfully? You knew what
4 you were doing?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Did anyone force you or coerce you or
7 threaten you or pressure you to do those acts?

8 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 Let me ask, are both counsel satisfied with the state
11 of the record?

12 Ms. Feinzig?

13 MS. FEINZIG: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 Mr. Twardy?

16 MR. TWARDY: Yes, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Twardy, do you know of any reason why
18 the Court should not accept a plea of guilty?

19 MR. TWARDY: No, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Marquez, have you clearly and fully 21 understood everything that has happened here today?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Upon this allocution, the Court finds that 24 the defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an 25 informed plea of guilty, the plea is knowing and voluntary, and

6cemarqptp

1 the plea is supported by an independent factual basis for each
2 and every element of the crime charged.

3 Accordingly, I report and recommend to Judge Brieant
4 that the plea be accepted and that the defendant be adjudged
5 guilty of the crime charged.

6 I direct that a presentence investigation be conducted
7 by the United States Probation Office.

8 I further direct the Clerk of the Court to provide a
9 transcript of these proceedings which sets forth my report and 10 recommendation to Judge Brieant within 30 days.

11 The matter will be adjourned for sentencing until?

12 THE DEPUTY CLERK: March 19th, 2007, 9 a.m.

13 THE COURT: March 19th, 2007, 9 a.m. sentencing before
14 Judge Brieant.

15 Now, this is the defendant's first appearance? We 16 need to --

17 MS. FEINZIG: It is, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: -- set conditions of release.

19 What's the government's recommendation?

20 MS. FEINZIG: Your Honor, the government's 21 recommendation, having spoken with Mr. Twardy, is that the 22 defendant be placed on a $500,000 personal recognizance bond to
23 be cosigned by two financially responsible persons; that travel
24 be restricted to Connecticut and New York --

25 MR. TWARDY: And Massachusetts. And would it be

6cemargptp

1 possible to include all of New England because of family things
2 going on? And, obviously, if there's some other times where we
3 have to work with you for such travel -- New England and New 4 York.

5 THE COURT: Okay. You have to mention the states.

6 MR. TWARDY: Right. I'll go through it. My geography
7 is worse.

8 Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Massachusetts,
9 Connecticut and New York.

10 THE DEFENDANT: And Maine.

11 MR. TWARDY: And Maine. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 No objection from the government?

14 MS. FEINZIG: No objection, your Honor.

15 Also, that he have Pretrial Services supervision; that 16 he surrender his passport, which he has already done.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 Any comment on any of those, Mr. Twardy?

19 MR. TWARDY: That's acceptable, your Honor, again,
20 with the understanding that there are -- he has -- Mr. Marquez
21 has family in California and Louisiana and in Florida and may 22 be traveling. But we will work that through --

23 THE COURT: Yes, you can make a request for travel
24 outside of those areas that we just mentioned.

25 MR. TWARDY: January 2nd to get the signatures,

6cemarqptp

1 please, your Honor. So probably January 5th, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 No objection?

4 MS. FEINZIG: No objection, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 I am going to -- I have reviewed the report. I am
7 going to generally accept the recommendations that have been 8 made as to conditions of release. Bail will be set in the 9 amount of a $500,000 personal recognizance bond to be cosigned
10 by two financially responsible persons. Defendant will have 11 until January -- what was the date? The 5th?

12 MR. TWARDY: The 5th?

13 MS. FEINZIG: The 5th.

14 THE COURT: -- January 5th, 2007, to present the two
15 financially responsible persons acceptable to the United States
16 Attorney. Travel will be restricted to the Southern District
17 of New York, Eastern District of New York -- well, I'll say the 18 State of New York. And I'm not going to try to remember all
19 those states.

20 Did you get them all down? Did you get them?

21 THE DEPUTY CLERK: I think I did. Connecticut,
22 Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island,
23 Connecticut, Maine.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 Did we get them all?

6cemarqptp

1 MR. TWARDY: Got them all that time.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Travel will be --

3 MR. TWARDY: By consensus, your Honor, I think we've 4 got them all.

5 THE COURT: Travel restricted to the states just named
6 by the Clerk of the Court.

7 Do you have a passport?

8 MS. FEINZIG: He's already surrendered it, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Your passport has been surrendered.

10 I will direct that you not make application for any 11 other passport or travel document while you're on release on 12 the case.

13 You will be subject to pretrial supervision as deemed
14 necessary by the Pretrial Services Office.

15 What that means, Mr. Marquez, is that if they tell you
16 to do something, it's just like the Court telling to you do it,
17 and you have to do it. Do you understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. TWARDY: Your Honor, if I might interrupt. I
21 apologize.

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 MR. TWARDY: Mr. Marquez just mentioned to me that 24 business does take him to New Jersey on a relatively regular
25 period of time. Might we add New Jersey to our list of states

6cemarqptp

1 to which he can travel?

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 No objection to New Jersey?

4 MS. FEINZIG: No objection.

5 THE COURT: Okay. We'll add New Jersey for your 6 travel.

7 The following conditions are also imposed:

8 You shall not commit any offense in violation of 9 federal, state or local law while on release. You shall
10 immediately advise the Court, defense counsel and the U.S.
11 Attorney, in writing, prior to any change of address or 12 telephone number. You shall appear at all proceedings as 13 required. You shall refrain from possessing a firearm,
14 destructive device or other dangerous weapon. You shall 15 refrain from excessive use of alcohol. You shall refrain from 16 any use or unlawful possession of a narcotic drug or other
17 controlled substance unless prescribed by a licensed medical 18 practitioner.

19 I do advise you, Mr. Marquez, that if you violate any 20 conditions of release, you could be brought back into court,
21 and your bail could be revoked. Do you understand that?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Also, if you do not show up in court as 24 required, you could face a separate charge of bail jumping and 25 face additional penalties, including imprisonment, fines or

6cemarqptp

1 both. Do you understand that?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 Once the necessary papers are signed, the defendant
5 will be free to go.

6 However, before you leave the building, Mr. Twardy, if 7 you and your client could go to the Probation Office on the 8 ground floor to begin the presentence investigation process.

9 MR. TWARDY: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 Anything further from either side?

12 MS. FEINZIG: Judge, could I have one moment, your 13 Honor?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 (Pause)

16 THE COURT: Has the defendant been processed already
17 by the marshals?

18 MR. TWARDY: We have to return to the marshals for a
19 few minutes, your Honor, and then we'll do probation after 20 that.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Very good.

22 Matter adjourned. Thank you.
